Vocation Corner- If you love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you and pray for those who maltreat you, realize that God has already working in you.

Prayer: For all those called to be perfected through the vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, that their lives of service in charity will bear lasting fruit, we pray to the Lord.

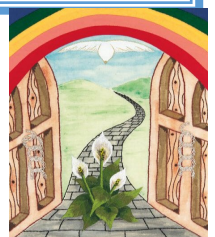

Action: The gospel is the basis of community life. By living in community, we proclaim the love of Jesus Christ. Living in community implies relationships. It means relating to one another as truly sisters and putting into practice what Jesus taught us: "Love one another as I have loved you."

Sister Mary Edward Urban, O.S.F. of the Sisters of St. Francis of the Providence of God, Whitehall Franciscan

Jesus said to his disciples . . . (Luke 6:27)

Love your enemies. Offer the other cheek. Lend without expecting a return. Forgive. Don't judge. Jesus is very clear about what discipleship entails. It's a challenging list, to say the least.

How can we, fallen human beings, actually do all these things?

St. Paul gives us a clue in today's second reading: "Just as we have borne the image of the earthly one, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one" (1 Corinthians 15:49). We were born like the first man, Adam, inclined to disobey God. But when Jesus died and rose from the dead, He sent us His "life-giving spirit" (15:45). So even now we begin to bear His heavenly image because, through our baptism, Christ lives in us.

That doesn't make Jesus' commands any less exacting, however. We still bear the wounds of our fallenness, and we won't be able to let go entirely of the earthly man until we are united with God in the next life. But Jesus wouldn't have set such a high bar if he didn't think it were possible for us to reach it in this life.

That's where faith comes in. We need to believe in God's word and promises. Even though the earthly still clings to us, the heavenly is now our defining feature because we have become a new creation in Christ (2 Corinthians 5:17).

That's the reality, even when we find ourselves struggling to follow God's ways.

God's grace is also a reality, and because Christ lives in us, we have unlimited access to it. We see the effectiveness of his grace most visibly in the lives of the saints and other holy men and women. It's that grace that enabled them to love their enemies, to forgive, and to generously give away their possessions.

And it's that grace that will also help us—one day, and even one moment, at a time.

"Jesus, give me all the grace I need to follow you today."

Family Day

For many of us, our families whether biologically or through spiritual bonds, are there for us through the best and challenging times in our lives.

Let us look toward our most sacred example of a loving, caring and nurturing family: the Holy Family. Through scripture and tradition, we know that Jesus, Mary and Joseph had a strong bond and love and respect for each other.

May we remember this as we celebrate Family Day.

Loving God, You care for us and love us unconditionally.

Teach us to do the same for the people in our families.

We ask this, through our Lord Jesus Christ in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen

Sask. Kof C Vocations Endowment Support

- All Catholic Bishops of Saskatchewan have partnered with the Knights of Columbus to promote the continued growth of the Sask. KofC Vocations Endowment.
- It costs over $30,000.00 per year to educate each of the 13 Seminarians from the Dioceses and Eparchy in Saskatchewan. Annual earnings from this Endowment will be disbursed equally to each seminarian to help defray these costs
- Please view our website at www.saskkofc.foundation to gain further information on how you may participate in this worthy cause
- The Bishops, Priests, Knights of Columbus and Catholic faithful thank you in advance for your prayers and financial support in the education and development of the future leaders within our Church
