Second World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly July 24, 2022

Pope Francis has been steadfast in inviting all of us to be bearers of compassion and mercy. This new day is set aside to honour our grandparents and the elderly and reminds all of us to be bearers of Christ's mercy and compassion to our grandparents and elders.

In his message, Pope Francis draws our attention to the fact that the pandemic has been particularly difficult regarding the loss of life and the isolation our grandparents and elders experienced. Through the celebration of this day, he is both reminding the grandparents and elders of the gift they are to their children, grandchildren and society at large and reminding us, the children, grandchildren and the community at large, to be attentive to our grandparents and elders.

World Day
for Grandparents and the Elderly
2022

Canada is one of the countries with a day already set aside for the celebration of Grandparents and Elders, the second Sunday of September, this year September 11, 2022.

Father . . . (Luke 11:2)

Imagine the insider's view that Jesus' disciples must have had. They lived with Him; they ate and drank with Him. They saw His countless everyday interactions, most of which weren't recorded in Scripture.

But today's Gospel gives us one that did.

Luke tells us that Jesus was praying, as He often did. The disciples must have observed Him because they asked, "Lord, teach us to pray" (Luke 11:1). In response, Jesus gave them more than a set of words or a format or technique.

He gave them an example and an invitation: to have a share in His own loving relationship with His Father.

How amazing that Jesus teaches the disciples to call God "Father" (Luke 11:2)!

What a privilege to speak so directly and familiarly to God! The Hebrew Scriptures had referred to God as the father of the people of Israel or father of the king (Deuteronomy 32:6; 2 Samuel 7:14).

But here, Jesus invites His disciples to call almighty God their own Father. Jesus likely used the word Abba, a word that expresses the bond of a child with his father. Isn't that amazing? Jesus gives them his own status as children of God and tells them to pray with the same childlike trust that He has (Luke 10:21).

Of course, this boldness didn't come naturally to the disciples—and it doesn't come naturally to us. So Jesus gives all of us an insider's view of the kind of Father we have. He is more merciful and generous than the best human father (Luke 6:36; 11:13). He is attentive to our needs and always ready to hear and answer our prayers (12:30; 11:10). He will not give us a scorpion when we ask for an egg (11:12).

He is rich in kindness and forgiveness (23:34). How awesome that he welcomes us as his children!

Jesus wants to give you the courage to pray, "Father."

So at Mass today, pray the Lord's Prayer with gratitude and awe that God is your loving Father.

"Father! Thank you for making me your child."
