Corpus Christi A Vocation View: That we can collaborate with God is a humbling truth. That God lives among us is startling. That we are the Body of Christ is our vocation. Prayer: That all Catholics will adore the great gift of the Holy Eucharist given to them by Jesus Christ at the hands of His priests and that those chosen to nourish His body as priests and in the consecrated life will inspire many more to follow Him, we pray to the Lord. Action: WHAT IS SO SPECIAL ABOUT THE PRIESTHOOD? The answer is the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist! Through it the priest offers the most sublime of sacrifices, that of God the Son to God the Father, applying the merits of Calvary to our lives today.

What does devotion to the Sacred Heart mean? St. Margaret Mary Alacoque was gifted spiritually as a youth, preferring silent prayer to playing as a child. She became bedfast with illness for four years. Praying to Mary, she promised to consecrate herself to Religious Life, and was instantly healed. She entered the Visitation Convent and became a Nun. She had visions of Jesus, and He taught her Devotion to the Sacred Heart, and First Friday devotions to honor His Sacred Heart. It is because of her visions and life as a Religious, that we have this devotion today. The image of the Sacred Heart is widely revered today. She was canonized, and her body is incorrupt. She is buried at the Chapel at Paray-le-Monial. One would do well to follow the devotion, it can be easily found today.

What does devotion to the Sacred Heart mean? Christ described His heart, according to Margaret Mary, as "the heart that has so loved humanity that it has spared nothing, even exhausting and consuming itself in testimony of its love." Thus, the Sacred Heart represents the fullness of God's love for humanity and the overflowing generosity of Christ's gift of self in the act of salvation. In a letter, Margaret Mary described the Sacred Heart as "an abyss of all blessings, and into it the poor should submerge all their needs. It is an abyss of joy in which all of us can immerse our sorrows. It is an abyss of lowliness to counteract our foolishness, an abyss of mercy for the wretched, an abyss of love to meet our every need."

Heavenly Father, Shower your blessings upon all Fathers. Grant them wisdom to guide their children along right paths. Grant them the strength to forgive when their children stray from those paths. Grant them perseverance as they provide for the needs of their families. May your love shelter them in times of need and expand their capacity for forgiveness, kindness, and compassion. You who are Father of us all hold all fathers in your warm and generous heart. St. Joseph guide and protect all Fathers. Amen

We, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. (1 Corinthians 10:17)

If you buy an airline ticket, you'll have to decide between first class, with all of its fine amenities, and the more basic economy class. If you go to a play, you can choose between orchestra seating, which is right in front of the action, and balcony seating, where you may not see the actors too clearly. Similar options exist in many other places where people gather. Except, of course, for Mass. There are no different "classes of service" at the liturgy: just the whole people of God gathered as one to receive "the one loaf," which is Jesus himself (1 Corinthians 10:17).

On this feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, St. Paul reminds us that we are "one body" in the Lord (1 Corinthians 10:17). Jesus has called us into one community as His brothers and sisters. He has gifted all of us with the "one baptism for the forgiveness of sins" (Apostles Creed). And He has filled each of us with the same Holy Spirit that filled Mary, Peter, John, and all the saints. Everyone has a first-class seat! Everyone has the same high privilege of being named a child of God!

This truth is at the heart of the mystery we celebrate today: in the gift of the Eucharist, Jesus offers His whole self—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity—to each and every one of us. He invites each of us to become treasured vessels of His presence: living, breathing tabernacles of His glory. He makes no distinctions, and He asks us to do the same: we are one in Christ!

Today during Holy Communion, look at the brothers and sisters gathered with you. Lift them up in prayer. Honor them as the beloved of Christ that they are.

And welcome them into your heart, just as Jesus has welcomed you!

"Jesus, thank you for giving yourself to me so freely and generously!"
