On Nov. 1st the Church celebrates all her holy ones in heaven, known and unknown, with the Feast of All Saints. The solemnity originally began in the 4th century to commemorate all the Christian martyrs killed during those centuries of brutal persecution. There were so many martyrs that a separate feast day could not be given to each one individually, yet, the Church did not want to leave any martyr without proper veneration. In the 8th century Pope Gregory III consecrated a chapel in St. Peter's Basilica to all the saints

The Feast of the Holy Souls is Nov. 2nd. The Holy Souls or the Faithful Departed are members of the Church who await the purification of their souls before joining the saints in heaven for all eternity. Specifically, they are called the Church Suffering (saints in heaven are the Church Triumphant, saints on earth are the Church Militant). The poor souls in purgatory cannot pray for themselves or do anything to hasten their entrance into heaven, but we can pray for them as an act of charity. The Catholic Church dedicates the entire month of November to praying in a special way for the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

"Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal Church, those in my own home, and within my family. Amen."

A Vocation View: 'Master grant that I may see'. The values we were blind to in our youth, now become clear. Blindness gives way to vision through faith in Jesus. As children of God, we are called to do good things, and to witness God's love.

Prayer: For all men and women now considering their vocation, that they will take heart in Jesus' call to serve Him as priests, deacons or in the consecrated life by our words of encouragement and prayers of support, we pray to the Lord.

Action: Since its origins consecrated life has been marked by its thirst for God: quaerere Deum. May your first and supreme desire therefore be to witness to the fact that God should be listened to and loved with all your heart, with all your mind and with all your might, before any other person or thing. Pope Benedict XVI, in a 2005 message to religious in the Diocese of Rome

Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you. (Mark 10:49)

Bartimaeus was desperate. He wanted Jesus to heal him, so he cried out repeatedly, "Son of David, have pity on me," (Mark 10:47, 48). The people nearby were clearly annoyed at his persistence. But when Jesus responded to Bartimaeus' cries, they changed their tune. Now they were his advocates, telling him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you" (10:49).

Today, let these onlookers give you the courage—and the encouragement—you need to come to Jesus with your own needs.

Maybe, like Bartimaeus, you've cried out for Jesus to heal you, but it seems He hasn't answered your prayer. So you've resigned yourself to your circumstances. You don't want to keep asking, just to be disappointed once again.

Take courage! Jesus is calling you. Keep coming to Him in faith. Believe in His love and His desire to heal. As you wait for Him to answer your prayer, know that He will give you comfort and consolation to sustain you.

Maybe you're ashamed of your sins and are afraid to confess them. Or perhaps you are still carrying the guilt of past sins that you've already confessed. Take courage! Jesus is calling you. He wants you to come to Him and receive His mercy—not just once, but every day if necessary.

Perhaps you feel too weak or ill-equipped to be a disciple of Jesus. Or you're afraid that family and friends will judge you if you talk about your faith too openly. Take courage! Jesus is calling you.

He wants you to ask Him for whatever you need—whether that's strength, boldness, or a particular set of gifts and talents—so that you can follow Him.

Today at Mass, imagine Jesus asking you the same question He asked Bartimaeus: "What do you want Me to do for you?" (Mark 10:51). Don't be afraid to tell Him! Know that He is pleased when you come to Him with your every need!

"Jesus, give me the courage to trust in You!"

HERE I AM LORD READY TO SHARE MY GIFTS

CWL Regional Workshop October 19, 2024 in Goodsoil

We started our day with fall beauty and sunshine, and delicious homemade muffins, fruit and coffee. There was representation from each of the CWL organizations in our region of Loon Lake, Saint Walburg, Paradise Hill, Pierceland, and Goodsoil, as well as Helen Kayfish ,CWL Provincial President, and Shirley Lamoureau , CWL Diocesan President.

After introductions of all the women who were out of town visitors, our guest speaker, Patricia Hankey, gave an inspiring talk about how her book “Dreams Interrupted: 10 German Canadian Farmers Interned During World War II” came to be. It’s an unbelievable, but true story that took her 10 years to research and organize, to make sure that these 10 men from Goodsoil and their families have not been forgotten. Thankyou Pat

We had a beautiful mass at St Boniface Church with Fr Dong Doan presiding. His message —that we are here not to BE served, but to BE a servant, sharing our gifts to become who our Creator intended us to be....was his gift to us. The collection of $600 at our mass will be given to Waskoosis Safe Shelter in Meadow Lake. A luncheon of hot soup, homemade buns, and tasty desserts was prepared collectively by all of the CWL groups. Thank you ladies .

A little bit of line dancing after the desserts took the guilt out of the equation for anyone counting. Thank you Donna for the workout. Our afternoon guest speaker, Donna Aldous, spoke on LEADERSHIP ??? featuring our National CWL women and their questions about leading, giving each table group time for sharingand ended with Jesus message of servant leadership. A little bit of nonsense from the SISTER ACT “I say a little Prayer to You “rounded out the day.

Our theme of the day can be summed up with Don’t just count your blessingsshare them
