Father in heaven, we praise Your name for all who have finished this life loving and trusting You, for the example of their lives, the life and grace You gave them and the peace in which they rest.

We praise You today for your servant Francis and for all that You did through him. Meet us in our sadness and fill our hearts with praise and thanksgiving, for the sake of our Risen Lord, Jesus Christ.

Into Your hands, O merciful Saviour, we commend Your servant Pope Francis. Acknowledge, we pray, a sheep of Your own fold, a lamb of Your own flock, a sinner of Your own redeeming. Enfold him in the arms of Your mercy, in the blessed rest of everlasting peace and in the glorious company of the saints in Heaven.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

A Vocation View: You've got an incredible message to make credible. It is not like selling used cars! It is proclaiming eternal life, forgiveness and Great Love!

Prayer: That the gift of Christ's peace will remain with all priests, deacons and those in the consecrated life who, sent in His name, proclaim the victory over the world through faith in Him, we pray to the Lord.

Action: WHATEVER STATE OF LIFE God calls us to, we bring with us an assortment of experiences, interests and gifts – however small they seem to us. We are called to put our lives at the service of the LORD and our neighbor, wherever we find ourselves. Where and how is God calling you to spread His Good News – His Love?

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY- The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us and wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins. So that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

"Those who sincerely say 'Jesus, I trust in You' will find comfort in all their anxieties and fears."

"There is nothing more man needs than Divine Mercy - that love which is benevolent, which is compassionate, which raises man above his weakness to the infinite heights to the holiness of God." ~Pope John Paul II

Jesus will give us complete forgiveness of sins and punishments if we do a few simple tasks.

We are asked to attend Mass and receive Holy Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday.

We also should say the Divine Mercy Chaplet and venerate the Divine Mercy Image on Divine Mercy Sunday. A good confession must be made 20 days before or after Divine Mercy Sunday. Not much to ask for when you consider that you receive forgiveness of sins and remission of punishment!

Thanks be to God for inviting us to this great banquet of mercy on Divine Mercy Sunday!

Do not be afraid. (Revelation 1:17)

Anyone would have been afraid! Most Jews believed that if they saw the glory of God face-to-face, they would die. This explains why St. John, who wrote the Book of Revelation, collapsed to the ground when he was brought into the presence of the "one like a son of man" (Revelation 1:13). Even John, who had walked with Jesus, witnessed His transfiguration, laid his head on Jesus' breast, and watched as He ascended to heaven, was overwhelmed!

Jesus' response to John is perfect for today's celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday: "Do not be afraid" (Revelation 1:17). He didn't tell John that there was no reason to fear; He touched him, offered a word of encouragement, and raised him up. That expression of love and intimacy overcame John's fears and enabled him to stand before his glorious Lord. That's what mercy is all about! It's the perfect love of God, which "drives out fear" (1 John 4:18).

This is the same mercy Jesus showed to Thomas in today's Gospel. Thomas doubted the resurrection because he hadn't seen it with his own eyes. But Jesus came and invited Thomas to touch His wounds and "believe" (John 20:27). Like John, Thomas experienced a mercy that saw his unworthiness and still drew him close.

We can experience that mercy, too. Jesus knows that in the light of His glory, we are all frail and flawed. He knows that in the light of His truth, we often doubt and distrust. He knows we are not worthy to come to Him on our own merits. Yet in His power and holiness and glory, He is patient with us. As He did for Thomas, He sees our weakness and shores up our faith. As He did for John, He calms our fearful hearts and assures us of His love.

So don't be afraid to come to Jesus today. Don't be afraid to let Him see you as you truly are. Come and hear Him say, "Do not be afraid."

"Jesus, thank you for the depths of your mercy!"
